

AIMONE OF SAVOY

DELEGATED BY THE HEAD OF THE ROYAL HOUSE FOR THE DYNASTIC ORDERS
PRESIDENT OF THE DYNASTIC ORDERS' COMMISSIONS

It being understood that the Dynastic Orders of the House of Savoy will conform to its original criteria based on merit and gratuity;

while awaiting the Studies Commission to present the appropriate proposals to render the Orders compatible with the laws of the nation,

APPOINTS AND INSTALLS IN OFFICE

the special Commission, in accordance with the previous announcement of 19 September 2006, with the task of evaluating the requirements of merit for readmission into the Orders on the basis of the requests mailed by the concerned persons within 31 January 2008, and will submit the names to the Head of the House.

The said Commission will express their preventive advice to the Head of the House concerning the new admissions and the advancements in the ranks of the Orders.

As previously agreed, the members of the Dynastic Orders invested by His Majesty King Umberto II will be admitted without question, upon simple request.

The Commission will remain in office for two years and may be confirmed or integrated according to necessity.

The requests should be sent to the following address:

Commission for the Dynastic orders of the House of Savoy
Palazzo Volpi
San Marco, 3947
I – 30124 Venice, Italy

At the same time the requests must be accompanied by a brief documentation: Date and reason for having received the Order, class of membership and the functions and positions held.

The Commission undertakes to reply within 30 May 2008.

Decree N. 3, of 29 September 2007.

Aimone of Savoy